For purposes of this Privacy Notice, "sale" means the disclosure of personal information to a third-party for monetary or other valuable consideration.

7. How we use cookies and tracking technologies

Like most websites, we use “cookies” and similar technologies (e.g., pixels and web beacons) to operate and improve our Website.

Cookies are small data files stored on your browser or device. They may be served by the entity that operates the website you are visiting (“first-party cookies”) or by other companies (“third-party cookies”). For example, we partner with third-party analytics service providers, like Google, to help us understand how our Website is being used so we can make the Website better for you.

We use the following types of cookies on our Website:

- a. Strictly Necessary Cookies – These cookies are needed to provide basic functions on the Website. We may use cookies and tracking technologies required to prevent fraudulent activity, improve security, and/or for system administration. We are not required to obtain your consent for cookies that are strictly necessary.
- b. Analytics and Performance-Related Cookies – We may use these cookies to assess the performance of our Website, including as part of our analytic practices to improve the services offered through the Website. These cookies may be used to prevent fraudulent activity and improve security. You may disable these cookies if you’d like.
- c. Functionality-Related Cookies – We may use these cookies to tell us, for example, whether you have visited the Website before or if you are a new visitor and to help us identify the features in which you may have the greatest interest. You may disable these cookies if you’d like.

To learn more about our use of cookies and similar technologies, click here to read our full Cookies and Tracking Policy.

8. Minors’ privacy

Our Website is not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly solicit or collect information from any individuals under the age of 13. We also do not sell information that is collected from our Website so therefore we have not sold information about minors. For information about the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), visit the FTC website: www.ftc.gov.

9. Your choices and rights

Website Cookies

To change your cookie preferences/disable certain cookies, click here.

Please note, you will need to reset your preferences if you later visit our Website from a different device or browser or if you clear your cookies.

Network Participants/ Business Partners (B2B)

If you've previously expressed interest in our products and services for your financial institution and you no longer wish to receive marketing communications from us, you can indicate your communication preference within the direct communication from us (e.g., using the unsubscribe link in the email you receive from us) or by emailing marketing@earlywarning.com. Please allow us a reasonable period of time in order to satisfy your request, as some communications may already be in process.

Zelle® App Users

This Privacy Notice applies to visitors of our Website, zellepay.com. If you also use the Zelle® app, please click here to read the Zelle® App Privacy Notice.

We will not discriminate against you for exercising your choices and rights.

10. Our data retention practices

We generally retain information collected on our Website for as long as it is necessary and relevant for our business operations and to comply with applicable law.

11. Notice to California residents

How California Residents Can Request a List of Third Parties that Received Personal Information: California residents may request a list of what personal information (if any) we've shared with third parties for their own direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year and the names and addresses of those third parties.

We do not share personal information with third parties for their direct marketing purposes. Therefore, we have not shared personal information with third parties for direct marketing purposes within the last 12 months.

How We Respond to Do Not Track Signals for California Residents: California Business & Professions Code Section 22575(b) (as amended effective January 1, 2014) provides that California residents are entitled to know how we respond to "Do Not Track" browser settings. We do not currently take actions to respond to Do Not Track signals because a uniform technological standard has not yet been developed. We continue to review new technologies and may adopt a standard once one is created.

12. Links to third party websites

Our Website may contain links to other third-party websites, such as our Network Financial Institutions and regulatory bodies such as the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). When you leave our Website and visit those websites, you are bound by the privacy notices of those websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third-party websites, which are governed by their own privacy notices and practices.

13. How we protect personal information

To help us protect your personal information, we maintain technical, physical, and administrative security measures to protect against loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, or alteration. Some of the safeguards we use are firewalls, data encryption, physical access controls to our data centers and information access authorization controls.

14. Where personal information is stored

We are located in the United States. Our services are available for eligible United States users only. Our operations use a network of computers, cloud-based services, and other infrastructure and information technology that are based in the United States. Additionally, we may use third-party service providers that may be located in and process or store your personal information in the United States, the European Union, and other countries.

15. Changes to this Privacy Notice

From time to time, we may update this Privacy Notice. We may notify you about material changes in the way we treat personal information by placing a notice on the Website. You should check the Website frequently for updates.

16. How to contact us

If your questions are not answered in this Privacy Notice, you may email us at privacyoffice@earlywarning.com, or write to us at Early Warning Services, LLC., Attn: Privacy Office, 16552 N. 90th St, Scottsdale, AZ 85260.
